FEDERAL DEFENDANTS' ANSWER TO PLAINTIFFS' FIRST AMENDED
COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

Federal Defendants, Ryan Zinke, in his official capacity as Secretary of the U.S. Department of the Interior, the U.S. Department of the Interior, and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (collectively, “Federal Defendants”), by and through the undersigned attorneys, answer the claims and allegations in Plaintiffs’ First Amended Complaint for Declaratory and Injunctive Relief as follows:

1. The allegations in paragraph 1 constitute Plaintiffs’ characterization of the action, to which no response is required. To the extent they may be deemed factual allegations, they are denied.

2. The allegations in paragraph 2 characterize the January 22, 2018 “Agreement for the Exchange of Lands” between Secretary Zinke and King Cove Corporation (“KCC”), which is the best evidence of its contents. To the extent the allegations are inconsistent with that agreement, they are denied.

3. The allegations in paragraph 3 are conclusions of law, to which no response is required. To the extent that any response is required, Federal Defendants deny the allegations.

4. The allegations in paragraph 4 constitute Plaintiffs’ characterization of the action and conclusions of law, to which no response is required. To the extent that any response is required, Federal Defendants deny the allegations.

5. The allegations in paragraph 5 are conclusions of law, to which no response is required.

6. The allegations in paragraph 6 are conclusions of law, to which no response is required.

7. The allegations in the first sentence of paragraph 7 are conclusions of law, to which no response is required. Federal Defendants admit that Plaintiffs attached a letter dated January 31, 2018, to their First Amended Complaint as Exhibit A and aver that this letter is the best evidence of its content. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 7 are inconsistent with that letter, they are denied. The remainder of the allegations in paragraph 7 are denied.

8. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 8 and, on that basis, deny the allegations.

9. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 9 and, on that basis, deny the allegations.

10. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 10 and, on that basis, deny the allegations.

11. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 11 and, on that basis, deny the allegations.

12. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 12 and, on that basis, deny the allegations.

13. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 13 and, on that basis, deny the allegations.

14. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 14 and, on that basis, deny the allegations.

15. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 15 and, on that basis, deny the allegations.

16. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 16 and, on that basis, deny the allegations.

17. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 17 and, on that basis, deny the allegations.

18. Federal Defendants lack knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations contained in paragraph 18 and, on that basis, deny the allegations. To the extent Plaintiffs are alleging that Federal Defendants' actions harm Plaintiffs' interests, such allegations are denied.

19. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in paragraph 19.

20. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in paragraph 20.

21. Federal Defendants admit the allegations in paragraph 21.

22. The allegations in paragraph 22 consist of Plaintiffs' characterization of and a quotation from Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act ("ANILCA"), to which no response is required. Federal Defendants aver that the statute is the best evidence of its content. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 22 are inconsistent with that statute, they are denied.

23. The allegations in paragraph 23 consist of Plaintiffs' characterization of and a quotation from ANILCA, to which no response is required. Federal Defendants aver that the statute is the best evidence of its content. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 23 are inconsistent with that statute, they are denied.

24. The allegations in paragraph 24 consist of Plaintiffs' characterization of and a quotation from ANILCA, to which no response is required. Federal Defendants aver that the statute is the best evidence of its content. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 24 are inconsistent with that statute, they are denied.

25. The allegations in paragraph 25 consist of Plaintiffs' characterization of and a quotation from ANILCA, to which no response is required. Federal Defendants aver that the statute is the best evidence of its content. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 25 are inconsistent with that statute, they are denied.

26. The allegations in paragraph 26 consist of Plaintiffs' characterization of the legislative history of ANILCA, to which no response is required. Federal Defendants aver that the legislative history is the best evidence of its content. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 26 are inconsistent with that legislative history, they are denied.

27. The allegations in paragraph 27 consist of Plaintiffs' characterization of ANCSA, to which no response is required. Federal Defendants aver that the statute is the Federal Defendants' Answer to First Amended Complaint

29. The allegations in paragraph 29 consist of Plaintiffs' characterization of and a quotation from ANILCA, to which no response is required. Federal Defendants aver that the statute is the best evidence of its content. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 29 are inconsistent with that statute, they are denied.

30. The allegations in paragraph 30 consist of Plaintiffs' characterization of and a quotation from ANILCA, to which no response is required. Federal Defendants aver that the statute is the best evidence of its content. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 30 are inconsistent with that statute, they are denied.

31. The allegations in paragraph 31 consist of Plaintiffs' characterization of ANILCA, to which no response is required. Federal Defendants aver that the statute is the best evidence of its content. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 31 are inconsistent with that statute, they are denied.

32. The allegations in paragraph 32 consist of Plaintiffs' characterization of and a quotation from the Wilderness Act, to which no response is required. Federal Defendants aver that the statute is the best evidence of its content. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 32 are inconsistent with that statute, they are denied.

33. The allegations in paragraph 33 consist of Plaintiffs' characterization of and a quotation from the Wilderness Act, to which no response is required. Federal Defendants aver that the statute is the best evidence of its content. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 33 are inconsistent with that statute, they are denied.

34. The allegations in paragraph 34 consist of Plaintiffs' characterization of and a quotation from the National Wildlife Refuge System Administration Act, to which no response is required. Federal Defendants aver that the statute is the best evidence of its content. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 34 are inconsistent with that statute, they are denied.

35. The allegations in paragraph 35 consist of Plaintiffs' characterization of and a quotation from the National Wildlife Refuge System Administration Act, to which no response is required. Federal Defendants aver that the statute is the best evidence of its content. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 35 are inconsistent with that statute, they are denied.

36. The allegations in paragraph 36 consist of Plaintiffs' characterization of and a quotation from the implementing regulations of the National Environmental Policy Act ("NEPA"), to which no response is required. Federal Defendants aver that the regulations are the best evidence of their content. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 36 are inconsistent with those regulations, they are denied.

37. The allegations in paragraph 37 consist of Plaintiffs' characterization of NEPA and a quotation from its implementing regulations, to which no response is required. Federal Defendants aver that the regulations are the best evidence of their content. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 37 are inconsistent with those regulations, they are denied.

38. The allegations in paragraph 38 consist of Plaintiffs' characterization of and a quotation from the implementing regulations of NEPA, to which no response is required. Federal Defendants aver that the regulations are the best evidence of their content. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 38 are inconsistent with those regulations, they are denied.

39. The allegations in paragraph 39 consist of Plaintiffs' characterization of and a quotation from the Endangered Species Act ("ESA"), to which no response is required. Federal Defendants aver that the statute is the best evidence of its content. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 39 are inconsistent with that statute, they are denied.

40. The allegations in paragraph 40 consist of Plaintiffs' characterization of the implementing regulation of the ESA, to which no response is required. Federal Defendants aver that the regulation is the best evidence of its content. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 40 are inconsistent with that regulation, they are denied.

41. The allegations in paragraph 41 consist of Plaintiffs' characterization of and a quotation from the ESA, to which no response is required. Federal Defendants aver that the statute is the best evidence of its content. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 41 are inconsistent with that statute, they are denied.

42. The allegations in paragraph 42 consist of Plaintiffs' characterization of and quotations from the ESA, to which no response is required. 123. The allegations in paragraph 123 consist of Plaintiffs’ characterization of the ESA, to which no response is required. Federal Defendants aver that the statute is the best evidence of its content. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 123 are inconsistent with that statute, they are denied.

124. Federal Defendants admit that listed species may be found in the Izembek National Wildlife Refuge but deny that designated critical habitat is located within the boundaries of the refuge.

125. Federal Defendants admit that Secretary Zinke did not prepare a biological assessment for the “Agreement for the Exchange of Lands” but deny that such assessment was required.

126. Federal Defendants deny the allegations in paragraph 126.

The remaining paragraphs of the First Amended Complaint comprise Plaintiffs' prayer for relief and require no response. Federal Defendants deny that Plaintiffs are entitled to any relief whatsoever.

GENERAL DENIAL

All of the allegations, including any unnumbered statements, headings, and footnotes, in Plaintiffs' First Amended Complaint that have not been specifically admitted, denied, or otherwise answered are hereby denied.

FEDERAL DEFENDANTS' AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

First Affirmative Defense

Plaintiffs fail to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

Second Affirmative Defense

The Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction over Plaintiffs' claims.

Third Affirmative Defense

Plaintiffs have not suffered any injury as a result of the January 22, 2018 “Agreement for the Exchange of Lands” between Secretary Zinke and KCC; therefore, they lack standing to commence this action.

Fourth Affirmative Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are not ripe for adjudication.

Fifth Affirmative Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are not the result of final agency action because the lands to be exchanged have not been finally determined.

PRAYER

WHEREFORE, Federal Defendants deny that Plaintiffs are entitled to the relief they pray for, or any relief whatsoever, and request that this action be dismissed with prejudice, that judgment be entered for Federal Defendants, and that Federal Defendants be allowed such other further relief as the Court may allow.

Dated this 3rd day of May, 2018.
